Your Host - Lewis Fuller

Lewis Fuller was born in 1998 in Ashford, Kent, England, UK. He is a British magician, singer, and illusionist. He gained national attention in 2023 as a semi-finalist on Britain's Got Talent, where his act combined singing and magic tricks. Lewis's performance included a teleport illusion integrated with singing, earning praise from judge Simon Cowell for its originality and execution. He progressed to the semi-finals but was eliminated in Semi-final 2, finishing 5th out of 8 acts. Despite his elimination, his performance left a lasting impression on the audience and judges. His career spans close-up magic, stage shows, vocal sets across genres, and hosting and MC duties. He has performed in over 75 countries and prestigious venues, including Mumbai, New York, Singapore, and throughout the Middle East. His work includes interactive musical sets and roaming close-up magic, catering to both intimate and large-scale occasions.
